FR. MARK'S NOTES

June 20 & the "Unlocked Conference"

I am writing this on Sunday, June 18, and our "Unlocked Conference" is this Tuesday, June 20. So, as you read this, that would mean our conference was last Tuesday. And, at this point, I don't know how the conference will go, but I can say this. If effort, planning, and vision indicate success or failure, this past Tuesday had to be a great success. All of you worked very hard to prepare for this event, and I want to thank you for your effort, time, and evangelical spirit – your desire for others to know and love Jesus as you do. Thanks, staff, volunteers, and everyone, for your prayers and support. Let me add this, your love for your parish and what she stands for in our local community speaks volumes.

I hope in some small way, people, leaders in their parishes, will be touched, and a spark will begin to burn in their hearts. When this spark begins to burn in their hearts, Jesus will be embraced by more and more people, and our mission statement will come to life in new ways. Of course, you know what our mission statement is: "Compelled by the love of Christ: we love others, deepen our faith, and transform our world." Slowly but surely, it's happening. You are bringing a new Church into being. Again, I have no idea how our conference will go, but if sincerity indicates, it should be an outstanding success, as Jesus would have it be. So, again, thank you. What a privilege from God for me that I get to be your pastor!!

Hearing from our Deacons

This Sunday, June 25, on "Follow Your Faith," we will hear from our Deacons, Nelson and Rick, as they speak about their experience as deacons. Why does being a deacon burn in their hearts? What was the preparation process like, and how are they doing now in their assignments at Resurrection and St. John Gualbert? Join us at 7:00 Sunday evening on YouTube Live: for "Hearing from our Deacons" this Sunday on Follow Your Faith.
